Miscues defeat varsity

Eight fumbles and on off passing attack combined to result in the Appomattox varsity Raiders' third straight defeat Friday night at the hands of Radford High School, 30-6.

"It was by far the best game we've played in four or five weeks," said coach Stuart Justus after the game. "We beat them everywhere but the scoreboard."

The Raiders fumbled five times within ten yards of the Radford goal line, including three fumbles inside the one-yard line, according to the coach. "You just can't make mistakes like that in a game and win."

The Raiders' lone score came in the fourth quarter on a nine-yard pass from quarterback Ronnie Carter to Jay Williams. The conversion attempt failed.

Justus' statement that the Raiders beat Radford everywhere but the scoreboard was no exaggeration. Appomattox had a total of 272 yards rushing to Radford's 143, but the Raiders were out-passed 123 yards to 14, a statistic which Justus said contributed to the local team's defeat.

From the word go, it was a frustrating night for the Raiders. For example, the Raiders kicked off to start the game, then intercepted a pass in the Radford end of the field on the first series of downs. Four plays later, the Raiders were on the Radford one-yard line, poised for the score. Then came the first of eight fumbles for the Raiders.

"Despite the loss, we were very proud of the way our boys played," Justus said. "The offensive line did a great job of blocking. And the defense really rallied to shut Radford down in the second half." Radford's only score in the second half came on an intercepted pass in the fourth quarter. The other scores came on passes from New River Valley District-leading passer Jimmy Wall of Radford, all in the first half.

The Raiders, whose record stands now at 5-3-1, will face Buckingham this Friday night at home for the final game of their 1980 season.

"Buckingham has not shown a lot of offense this season," commented Justus on the upcoming game. "But they do have a tough offense; that's the strongest point of their game. If we don't get some points on the board early in the game, it could wind up a 0-0 tie," Justus added.

"It could work out that the team that gets the right break at the right time will win the ball game, " Justus concluded.

Friday night's game will get underway at 8 p.m. at Bragg Stadium in Appomattox.

Hunting season set to begin next Monday

Small game hunting season begins Monday in Appomattox County, and deer season begins the following Monday, Nov. 17.

In addition, turkeys will come into season this coming Monday, in Appomattox and surrounding counties.

The bag limit on squirrels and rabbits this year is six per day and 75 per license year. The season extends from Nov. 10 through Jan. 31.

Quail season extends through Feb. 14, and the bag limit is eight per day, 125 per season.

Turkey season in Appomattox extends through Dec. 31. Hunters will be allowed to take one bird per day, two birds per license year this year, one of which may be a hen in the fall season.

Deer season will end in Appomattox Jan. 5 this season. Hunters will be allowed to take one deer per day, two per license year, one of which may be a doe during the last six hunting days only.

State resident hunting licenses are $7.50 this year, and a state resident license to hunt deer, bear and turkey is $7.50.

Licenses and full information on all aspects of the Virginia hunting scenario are available at the County Clerk's office in the courthouse complex.

Jayvees' win streak ends

A six-game winning streak ended Thursday when the Appomattox jayvee Raiders fell 20-12 to a tough, undefeated Monelison team.

"They were two good junior varsity teams playing last Thursday," commented coach Howard Clabough after the game. "Monelison got the breaks this time, and a key fumble in the second half with the Raiders trailing 7-6 was the turning point."

Monelison drew first blood on a 40-yard run in the first quarter, followed by a successful conversion kick. The Raiders bounced right back, however, scoring on a 20-yard pass from quarterback Paul Johnson to receiver Jeff Fanny. The Raiders' conversion attempt failed, however.

The first half ended with the Raiders trailing 7-6, and neither team scored in the third quarter. In the fourth quarter, Monelison scored twice in a row to lead 20-6. The Raiders scored once more before the game ended on a two-yard run by Gary Ferguson, but failed on their conversion attempt, to ice the score at 20-12.

"We won on statistics, but lost on the scoreboard," Clabough commented following the game. The Raiders outplayed Monelison, recording 12 first downs to Monelison's nine, and running up 218 total yards of offense (112 on the ground and 106 passing) to Monelison's 173. The Raiders total time of possession for the game was 20:19 to Monelison's 19:41.

Steve Hamlett led Raider runners with 55 yards on 12 carries, followed by Gary Ferguson with 46 yards on nine carries and Louis Preston with seven yards on two carries.

Quarterback Paul Johnson had a "great night" in the passing department, according to Clabough, with eight completions out of 10 attempts for 106 yards passing.

Receiver Jeff Fanny also received high praise from the coach for his four catches totaling 80 yards in the game.

Clabouth cited the fourth-quarter fumble recovery by Monelison as the key factor in the Raiders' loss. "Monelison scored after that miscue and the Raiders never caught up, although the team made a gallant effort to do so," the coach said.

The jayvee Raiders enter their final game of the season this Thursday night at Buckingham with a 6-1 district record, 6-3 overall. Game time for this week's contest is 6 p.m.

Petty honored

Lawson Ford and General Manager Bill Burke have announced that L. Page Petty recently attained membership in the prestigious Ford Society of Professional Sales Counselors for 1980, the 21st consecutive year in which he has been so honored.

Membership in the Ford Sales Society is attained only by those qualifying Ford salespersons who display outstanding sales achievement during the calendar year. Mr. Petty has been employed with Lawson Ford since 1959. The Society of Professional Sales Counselors is a professional organization created by the Ford Motor Company to honor top automotive salespersons.

Mr. Petty and his wife Betty live with their two sons and daughter at Red House, near Appomattox.

Page invites the public to "stop by Lawson Ford and take a look at the 1981 line of Fords."
